HANDS-ON WORKSHOPS

MONDAY, MAY 6TH

Understanding Color Theory & Color Correction: Orlando Santiago
Studio 2, 10:00am- 1:00pm – $140
Class Level: Beginner

Theory is used to allow us to understand how colors react to each other and how our eyes see that reaction. This reaction is the basis of all make up design. Color theory applied in beauty make up lets us enhance certain features like eye color, make educated choices to correct discoloration in the skin tone or skin imperfections, and helps with issues like under eye darkness. In more advanced or avant garde make up designs, color theory will help you create a unique and impactful end result. In this hands-on workshop, you will learn how to make your own foundations, customize colors to design the best looks for your clients, and develop your eye to see how color theory applies to all aspects of your work.

Perfect Skin- Felicia Walker, Studio 1, 1:00pm-4:00pm – $105
Class Level: Beginner to Intermediate

Today's client has unprecedented access to a plethora of beauty information. And thanks to social media and modern cameras, your client's quest for complexion perfection presents a challenge that mere makeup application might not solve. As the beauty expert and a trusted source, the makeup artist is in a unique position to offer the client education, tips, and techniques to help enhance his or her skin, beyond makeup. Having a basic knowledge of skincare is essential to diminishing texture, adding lift and glow and eliminating discoloration. In this workshop, the facilitator walks you through the basics of skin preparation from decision making to actual process. You'll have an opportunity to practice under the guidance of a master and gain valuable knowledge from her feedback. The facilitator will also address skin care concerns including rosacea, acne and scarring and address the best products for artists to carry in their professional makeup kit.
