Class Level: Intermediate to Advanced

Danessa Myricks – World-renowned Makeup Artist, Educator, Photographer and Brand Owner

When it comes to complexion there is definitely no “One size fits all” approach. There are so many considerations to take into account like skin tone, skin type, skin imperfections and taste, just to name a few.

Join Danessa for this intimate live session where she answers all your questions about strategically designing complexion for every skin type and occasion. During this exclusive, interactive session, Danessa will demonstrate a variety of complexion techniques including managing texture, designing natural bulletproof matte skin, color correction, and the strategic layering of textures and finishes to create the most natural, multi-dimensional skin.

- Building your texture tool kit
- The power of underpainting
- Strategically customizing glow
- Shape shifting features using radiance
- Minimizing texture while amplifying glow
- Glow and the Power of 3

Diversifying Your Artistry in the Digital Age: Lijha Stewart & Yvonne MacInnis
Studio 2: Friday September 30, 10:00am-2:00pm – $200
Class Level: Beginner to Advanced

Being a makeup artist in today's landscape requires artists to be multifaceted. Social media has challenged us to diversify our artistic toolbox and expand past our traditional roles as pro makeup artists. Through communication, connection, and conversion: you can acquire new projects, clients, and most importantly multi-stream income potential. As working makeup artists in the industry, we are being asked to diversify our skill set more than ever & to work as our own Directors, Videographers, and Marketers all from the comfort of our own homes and phones! In this hands-on, you will learn what it takes to create compelling content, from lighting to on-camera makeup 'magic tricks'. We will share the three golden rules for making stand out imagery that captures audiences and elevates your personal brand. You'll be guided through each step of the process from planning, creating, and curating content for your social media platforms and get the attention of the clients & brands you want to notice you.

Working in TV and Film: Melanie Mills
Studio 1: Friday September 30, 2:30pm-5:30pm – $140
Class Level: Early Stage to Advanced

Working in television and film is an exciting and rewarding opportunity in the makeup industry. With more production work than ever and more union positions available, it is important to understand the who, what, where, when, and why? At times, it can be overwhelming when it comes to landing the position, building the right skill set and succeeding as an artist in design.

In this hands-on workshop multiple Emmy Award winner and Makeup Guild award recipient Melanie Mills, demonstrates a step-by-step process to understand the needs of today's clients and cameras.

MAIN STAGE PRESENTATIONS

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 1

Main stage presentations are included in your show ticket.*

Making Up: James Molloy Saturday October 1, 10:30am -12pm

As one of the most talked about makeup artist in our industry in the last few years, James Molloy continues to redefine modern beauty. With an impressive resume that includes celebrities, international fashion and beauty and developing a brand that every artist wants, James Molloy has made a name for himself as an artist, entrepreneur and educator. His company MYKITCO continues to change the way we look at tools.

In his first time at The Makeup Show, James will share his inspiring story and show you how he creates his unforgettable looks. He will offer insight on choosing the right tool, take you through his process and talk about building your name in a competitive industry. Whether your work is in bridal, television or editorial, this is a presentation not to be missed.

Artist Redefined: James Vincent & Jon Hennessey Saturday October 1, 12:30pm-1:30pm

The cultural shift that has taken place over the last few years has made a major impact on the beauty industry. As artists we have an incredible opportunity to take a fresh look at our existing landscape and explore all of the possibilities available to us. In this session we will revisit the title of “Makeup Artist”, and examine some new ways for artists to build their businesses and brands. We will refine where we delegate our energy, strategically targeting specific tools/skills to practice, update, etc. We will help you better understand the difference between being an artist that is Acceptable vs. Unique vs. Exceptional. In this panel we will examine and explore these three levels of being through the lenses of Artistry, Marketing, Portfolio and more. Don't miss the chance to learn from the experts and see the unlimited potential this industry allows.

Hollywood Insider: Working in Television and Film: Debbie Zoller & Tym Buacharern – Saturday October 1, 3:30pm-4:30pm

Working in television and film is an exciting and rewarding opportunity in the makeup industry. Our Union artists work hard to deliver impeccable work in a stressful environment and both their talent and dedication helps to move the industry and culture forward.

With more production roles than ever and more union positions available, navigating the various duties and responsibilities of television work and/or film requires a real understanding. Recognizing all that's needed to land a position, building the right skill set, to gaining the knowledge for many new requirements; the substantial ins and outs of the industry can be overwhelming.

In this first-time keynote session, well known make-up artists Tym Buacharern and Debbie Zoller discuss the knowledge into finding your place within the union and overall beauty industry.
